Third move: The whole world singing “Sing of the motherland”

North America Cultural federation and foreign “Sublime music” music forum jointly sing the chorus of “Sing of the motherland”, will be the overseas Chinese to send their congratulations on the 60th National Day.

The network chorus chanteur is a overseas Chinese who deeply loves music from various world continents. These people drift as “people away from home” in all corners of the world. Although these people face their own struggles strongly, and always strive upward, in their hearts they still have images of their family members and the native countries beautiful scenery. Everyone’s dream is different, it represents a period of life, personal sentiment, and personal understanding, but the motherland is everybody’s common ground and the natural place to return to.

The network chorus takes down singers from all over the world, puts them together and “Manufactures” a chorus. It gathered overseas Chinese people to the motherlands fervor in all corners of the world and sang: Motherland, I sing to you! Bless you to be prosperous!

After the song was made, the countless overseas Chinese harbored longings for the motherland. Wang Shen, author of “Sing of the motherland”, heard the song before he left the world with a smile.
